

Welcome to Civil War Activities for Kids:

Copywork

On the following pages, you will find ten quotes from prominent men from America's Civil War period. It was a horrible time, as these men readily confess. Yet it was a pivotal time for our nation and our world.

There are two pages at the beginning of this book that list the quotes that are ideal for using in dictation. Following these pages you will find the copywork organized by its author. For example, there are four quotes by Robert E. Lee. You will find these first as copywork to trace, then written out as copywork to copy, and then blank lines for the student to use for his own copying of the text.

My prayer is that this copywork is a blessing to your family and draws you closer to the One who breaks down every barrier that separates man from man and man from God.

“That at that time ye were without Christ . . . having no hope, and without God in the world: But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby” Ephesians 2:12-16 KJV.

Ulysses S. Grant

"When news of the surrender first reached our lines our men commenced firing a salute of a hundred guns in honor of the victory. I at once sent word, however, to have it stopped. The Confederates were now our prisoners, and we did not want to exult over their downfall."

Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson

"Captain, my religious belief teaches me to feel as safe in battle as in bed. God has fixed the time for my death. I do not concern myself about that, but to be always ready, no matter when it may overtake me. That is the way all men should live, and then all would be equally brave."
