Who Said It?

Who said each of the following quotes? Circle the correct answer from the choices given.

1. To be a Christian without prayer is no more possible than to be alive without breathing.

Huldrych Zwingli

Martin Luther

John Knox

2. Therefore all Christian people shall use their best diligence that the Gospel of Christ be preached alike everywhere.

Martin Luther

John Calvin

Huldrych Zwingli

3. . . . it is proved, that it is entirely by the intervention of Christ's righteousness that we obtain justification before God. This is equivalent to saying that man is not just in himself, but that the righteousness of Christ is communicated to him by imputation, while he is strictly deserving of punishment.

John Calvin

John Knox

Martin Luther

4. One man with God is always in the majority.

Martin Luther

John Knox

Huldrych Zwingli

5. The whole may be thus summed up: Christ given to us by the kindness of God is apprehended and possessed by faith, by means of which we obtain in particular a twofold benefit; first, being reconciled by the righteousness of Christ, God becomes, instead of a judge, an indulgent Father; and, secondly, being sanctified by his Spirit, we aspire to integrity and purity of life.

John Knox

John Calvin

Martin Luther

6. If he have faith, the believer cannot be restrained. He betrays himself. He breaks out. He confesses and teaches this Gospel to the people at the risk of life itself.

Martin Luther

John Calvin

Huldrych Zwingli

7. Hence Christ is the only way to salvation for all who ever were, are, and shall be.

John Knox

Huldrych Zwingli

John Calvin

8. You should not believe your conscience and your feelings more than the Word which the Lord who receives sinners preaches to you.

John Knox

Martin Luther

John Calvin
