

The Pennsylvania
town where Hershey
chocolate is made
changed its name to Hershey in 1906.

Cows give the milk
needed to make cacao beans into chocolate candy.

Milton Hershey

started work at his

new Hershey

Chocolate factory

in 1905.

Cacao trees grow
fast; then they stop
growing and rest
for a while.