Challenge Word: righteousness—a way or state that is in agreement with divine law

Read each of the words.

Now, go back over the words again. Say the word aloud. Spell the word aloud. Say the word aloud again.

Write each of the words one time. Write your challenge word two times. Don't forget to include the definitions for the vocabulary words and the challenge word.

On the following pages is the copywork activity to review these words. The copywork is from the Old Testament, Psalm 23:1-6, KJV.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Psalm 23:1-6, KJV

Today, you will do some proofreading. Whenever you write something, you should look at it when you are finished and make certain you have spelled everything correctly. Look at the paragraph below and draw a circle around all the words that are misspelled. You should find fifteen misspelled words. After you find all the misspelled words, write each of them correctly on the lines at the bottom of the page. You only need to write each word one time, no matter how many times it was misspelled.

I was reading a mystery book one evening when I fell asleep. I had a very strange dream that I had to be very careful where I went because someone might folow me. I could not see anyone behind me, though I had the feeling that there was someone who was going to folloo me wherever I went. The dream covered a long period of time and wherever I decided to dwill, there was a shadoe that was there, thogh I surly could not figure out what it was. I could not think of any enemys that I had, but the shaddow and fear showed no merrcy. Finally, I woke up. What a relief! I am threw with reading mysteries before I go to sleep. I think it would be much better to read my Bible before going to sleep so that I can dream about being in the presense of the mersey, goodnes, and rightousness of God no matter where I dwel.

List One—Day Three

1. shadow
2. though
3. enemies
4. goodness
5. surely

10. dwell—to live in or remain in an area for a period of time

Challenge Word: righteousness—a way or state that is in agreement with divine law

Divide each of the following spelling words into syllables. Put a slash between the syllables of the word. For example, the word create would be divided this way: cre/ate.

1. enemies
2. mercy
3. righteousness
4. surely
5. shadow
6. follow
7. presence

Since three of your words have only one syllable, do the following exercises with those three words. Use a dictionary if necessary to help you.

1. While dwelled is accepted as a past tense for the verb dwell, another past tense form of the verb dwell is _____.
2. Write a homonym for the word through. _____
Now, write a short description of the difference in meaning between the two words.
3. There are not a lot of words in the English language that end in ough and rhyme with though. Many times ough has a different sound. Write a word that ends in ough that rhymes with though. If you are having trouble coming up with one, here is a hint: One word is something that you make bread out of.

List One—Day Four

1. shadow
