Write each of the words one time. Write your bonus words two times. Don't forget to include the definitions when you copy the words.

On the following pages is the copywork activity to review selected words. The copywork is from the New Testament, Acts 24:1-4, KJV.

And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words."

Acts 24:1-4, KJV

Have you ever stopped to think about the fact that we often use the same words over and over to express ourselves? Sometimes we even have trouble saying exactly what we mean because we aren't sure what words to use to say it. It's time to liven up our conversation and writing with new words!

You are going to create your own personal dictionary. This is your dictionary of new words that can be incorporated into your day-to-day life.

Choose a word from this week's spelling list that you like. It does not matter which word you choose. Print out the dictionary page to use for the exercises we will be doing, or use a piece of notebook paper, whichever you like.

Today's personal dictionary assignment is to write the word you have chosen to add to your vocabulary at the top of the dictionary page. Look up the word in a dictionary and copy the pronunciation on your dictionary page. Also, write your word divided into syllables. Practice saying the word properly according to the dictionary pronunciation.

List One—Day Three

1. quietness—peacefulness
2. thankfulness—gratefulness
3. providence—good management; providing for the future
4. orator—someone who speaks very well in public
5. tedious—going on for a long time; tiresome
6. governor—official who oversees a state, colony, province, etc.

Bonus Words

7. acquire—obtain; to get something
8. equity—fairness; impartiality
9. minimal—very small; smallest amount possible
10. realistic—representing something as it really is; lifelike
11. beneficial—helpful; causing a good result

Write your words in alphabetical order. After you have written them, divide them into syllables. Put a slash between the syllables of the word. For example, the word create would be divided this way: cre/ate.

Read the following verses or quotations. In each one there is an italicized word that replaces the word that was originally used in the verse or quotation. The italicized word is a synonym for the spelling word which belongs in that spot. Rewrite the verse or quotation using the correct spelling word in place of the italicized word.

1. To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and fairness; (Proverbs 1:3, KJV)
2. Nobody can obtain honor by doing what is wrong. (Thomas Jefferson)

Explain what each of the above quotations means to you. Discuss your explanations with a parent after you have written them.
