

Sydney is the largest city in Australia. It is in the state of New South Wales on the southeastern coast. It is a very busy center of business, and people from all over the world visit the harbor and the airport.

Sydney is the largest city in Australia. It is in the state of New South Wales on the southeastern coast. It is a very busy center of business, and people from all over the world visit the harbor and the airport.

Sydney is the largest city in Australia. It is in the state of New South Wales on the southeastern coast. It is a very busy center of business, and people from all over the world visit the harbor and the airport.

