

Johann Sebastian

Bach

Some people say

Ludwig van

Beethoven is the greatest composer to have ever lived. He wrote the Fifth

Symphony even though he had

hearing trouble.

Joseph Hayden

Sir Edward Elgar was born in Great Britain. His most famous work, a set of five marches called Pomp and Circumstance, is often heard at graduation
ceremonies.