

Benjamin Banneker

was born on November 9, 1731.

and used his
telescope to make predictions for a yearly almanac.

She moved to Chicago, IL, where
many people lived
in small apartments.

Sarah Goode

invented the

“folding bed.” It could be folded out

of the way when it

wasn't being used.