Here is a map of the Massachusetts colony that shows where Boston is.

Teapots were very common in the colonies because most people drank tea.

*Ships came to Boston Harbor loaded with tea
to sell to the colonists.*

The East India Tea Company sold tea to the colonists, but charged a special tax.

The colonists thought the tax on tea was not fair because they could not buy tea anywhere else.

The colonists dressed as Native Americans so no one knew who they were.

The colonists destroyed
the tea and dumped it into Boston Harbor.

They threw more than three hundred chests of tea into Boston Harbor.

The Boston Tea

Party was one of the many things that led to the American

Revolutionary War.

Years later, the signal

went out from the Old North Church.

War had begun.
