In the 1950s, girls wore poodle skirts, boys combed their hair into ducktails, movies could be watched with 3-D glasses, and rock 'n' roll was new.

You could listen to your favorite songs by Chuck Berry, Elvis Presley, or Johnny Cash on the radio or play them on the jukebox.

As we come to the end of the 1960s and
get ready to move
into the 1970s, what do you think will happen next?
