How to Use This Book

Welcome to this Presidential Quiz Pack: U.S. Presidents 32-36! This book contains five quizzes or puzzles for each of the Presidents included, as well as a notebooking page and research prompts for each. There is also a wrap-up puzzle at the end that challenges students to match twenty world events with the name of the President in office when they occurred.

There are many ways to use this pack in your studies:

- It is perfect for review after students have studied a time period in history or social studies.
- Parents and teachers can use the pack to help create a list of ideas or areas you wish to explore as you plan your study.
- Students can use the book as a starting point for independent study. Have students take the quizzes to the library or use them at the computer to search for the answers to the questions. Allow plenty of time for rabbit trails so students can investigate facts and stories they discover as they complete their pack.
- It can also be used as a tool to help students practice and sharpen research and notetaking skills. Have students record where they find the answers to each question as they would if they were doing research for a paper or presentation. You can also use this record of sources to help them dig deeper into the topics that interest them.

However you use the pack in your curriculum, I hope you find many forgotten or unknown moments in history to discuss with your students!

It is understandable to all of us that they should ask this question. They read the words of those who are telling them that the ideal of individual liberty, the ideal of free _____, the ideal of peace through _____, are _____ ideals. They read the word and hear the boast of those who say that a belief in force—force directed by self-chosen leaders—is the new and vigorous system which will overrun the earth. They have seen the _____ of this philosophy of force in nation after nation where free institutions and individual liberties were once _____.

It is natural and understandable that the younger generation should first ask itself what the extension of the _____ of _____ to all the world would lead to ultimately . . .

It is right that each new generation should ask questions. But in recent months the _____ question has been somewhat _____. Once more the future of the nation and of the American people is at stake.

We need not and we will not, in any way, _____ our continuing effort to make _____ work within our borders. We still insist on the need for vast _____ in our own social and economic life. But that is a component part of national defense itself.

The program unfolds swiftly and into that program will fit the _____ and the opportunity of every man and woman in the land to _____ his and her _____ in days of peril.

I call for effort, courage, _____, devotion. Granting the love of freedom, all of these are possible.

And the love of freedom is still fierce and steady in the nation today.
