

Over ten thousand
men stayed at Valley Forge
that winter.

General Washington
worked hard to get his soldiers what
they needed.

The soldiers were better trained at
the end of the winter.