

Zaragoza (Saragossa) in the northeastern part of Spain was named Caesarea Augusta by Roman emperor Augustus. Later it was the capital of the kingdom of Aragon. Today, it is home to many factories and businesses.

I hope you've enjoyed visiting four of the many cities in Spain! Before you leave to go home, could I ask you to do something special for the people here? Spain is home to many native peoples as well as people who have moved here from all over the world. More than twenty languages are spoken, and many of them don't have Bibles translated for them yet. Many people in Spain believe in Jesus, but there are millions of people who still do not understand how much Jesus loves them.

Will you remember to pray for the people of Spain? Here are a few things you can pray for. You can add more prayer requests to the list as you think of them!

Pray that people will have Bibles to read in whatever language they speak.

Pray for the people living in Madrid, Barcelona, Seville, Zaragoza, and every city and town to believe in Jesus.
