

Please note: As your students do research, they will find that some of these treaties are called by other names. Some dates may vary by source because some record the date the treaty negotiation began and others when it was signed or ratified (two years are mentioned where possible). Additionally, some wars may appear to be missing from this unit because some were settled by means other than a treaty.

Copyright © 2020 by WriteBonnieRose, LLC

Select graphics used courtesy of Fruits of Perseverance.

All Rights Reserved. This book may not be reproduced or transmitted by any means, including graphic, electronic, or mechanical, without the express written consent of the author except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical articles and reviews and those uses expressly described in the following Terms of Use. You are welcome to link back to the author's website, <http://writebonnierose.com>, but may not link directly to the PDF file. You may not alter this work, sell or distribute it in any way, host this file on your own website, or upload it to a shared website.

Terms of Use: For use by a family, this unit can be printed and copied as many times as needed. Classroom teachers may reproduce one copy for each student in his or her class. Members of co-ops or workshops may reproduce one copy for up to fifteen children. This material cannot be resold or used in any way for commercial purposes. Please contact the publisher with any questions.

Treaty of Paris, 1763

When was it signed?

Where was it signed?

Who were the parties involved?

Why was it needed?

What were its main accomplishments?

What other interesting facts did you learn?

Treaty of Amity and Commerce, 1778

When was it signed?

Where was it signed?

Who were the parties involved?

Why was it needed?

What were its main accomplishments?

What other interesting facts did you learn?

Treaty of Tripoli, 1797

When was it signed?

Where was it signed?

Who were the parties involved?

Why was it needed?

What were its main accomplishments?

What other interesting facts did you learn?

Five-Power Naval Limitation Treaty, 1922

When was it signed?

Where was it signed?

Who were the parties involved?

Why was it needed?

What were its main accomplishments?

What other interesting facts did you learn?