

Virginia Apgar, 1909-1974

Apgar developed a method to assess the health of a newborn baby.

Christiaan Neethling Barnard, 1922-2001

Barnard was a South African surgeon who performed the first
human heart
transplant.

Helen Fairchild, 1855-1918

Fairchild was a nurse who served on the front lines in World War I and died from complications related to her service.

Anna Caroline Maxwell, 1851-1929

Maxwell worked to establish an Army Nurse Corps and served in World War I.