

There are different kinds of markings
on a horse's face.

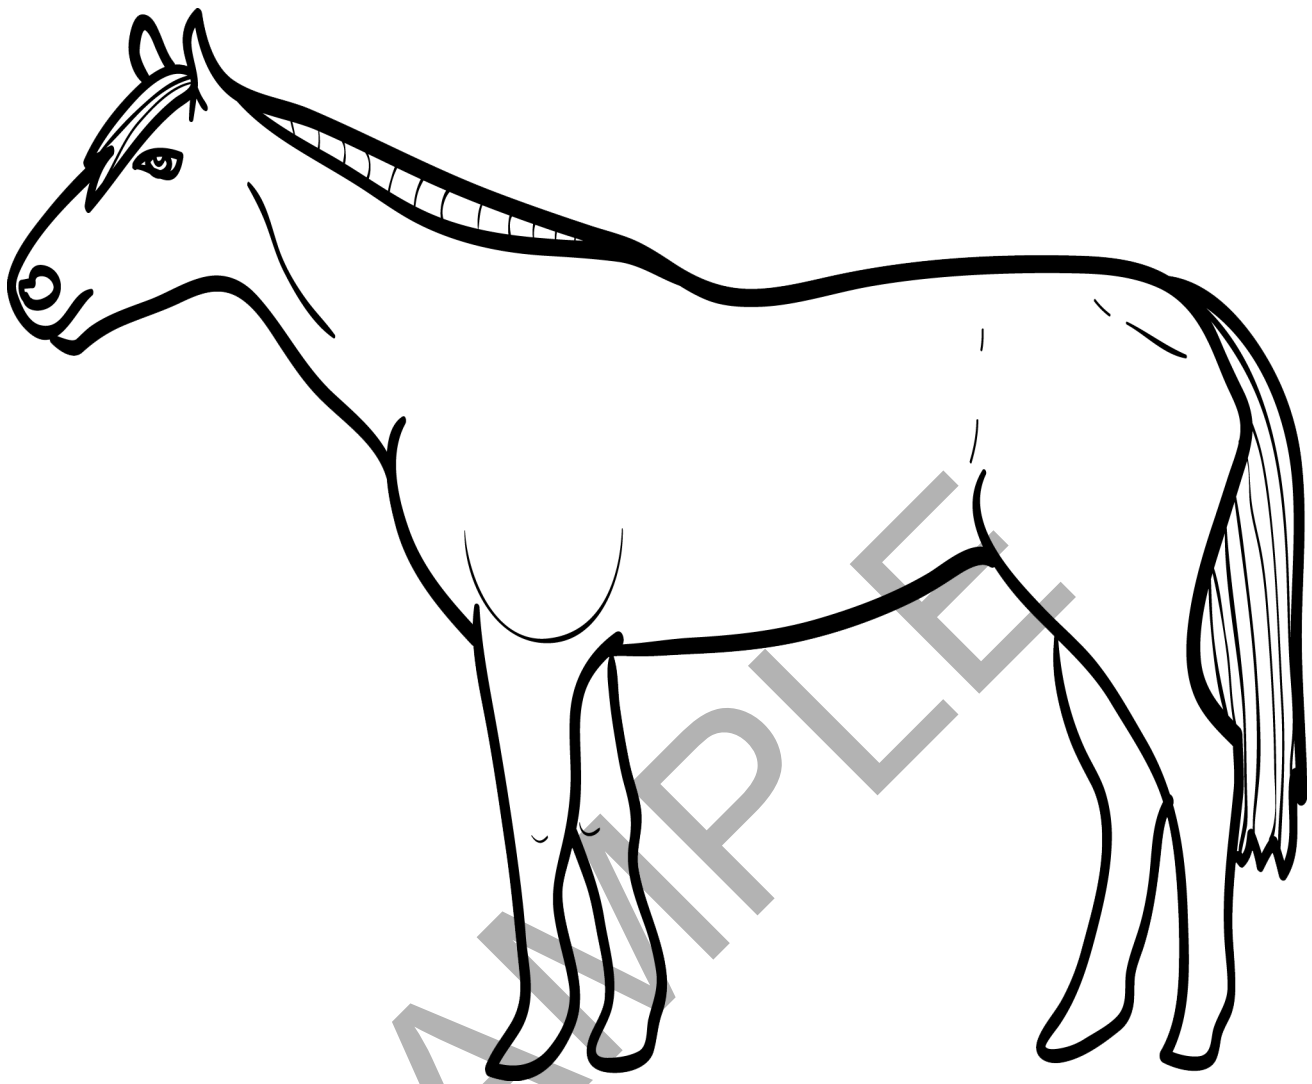

A blaze is a large
white marking.

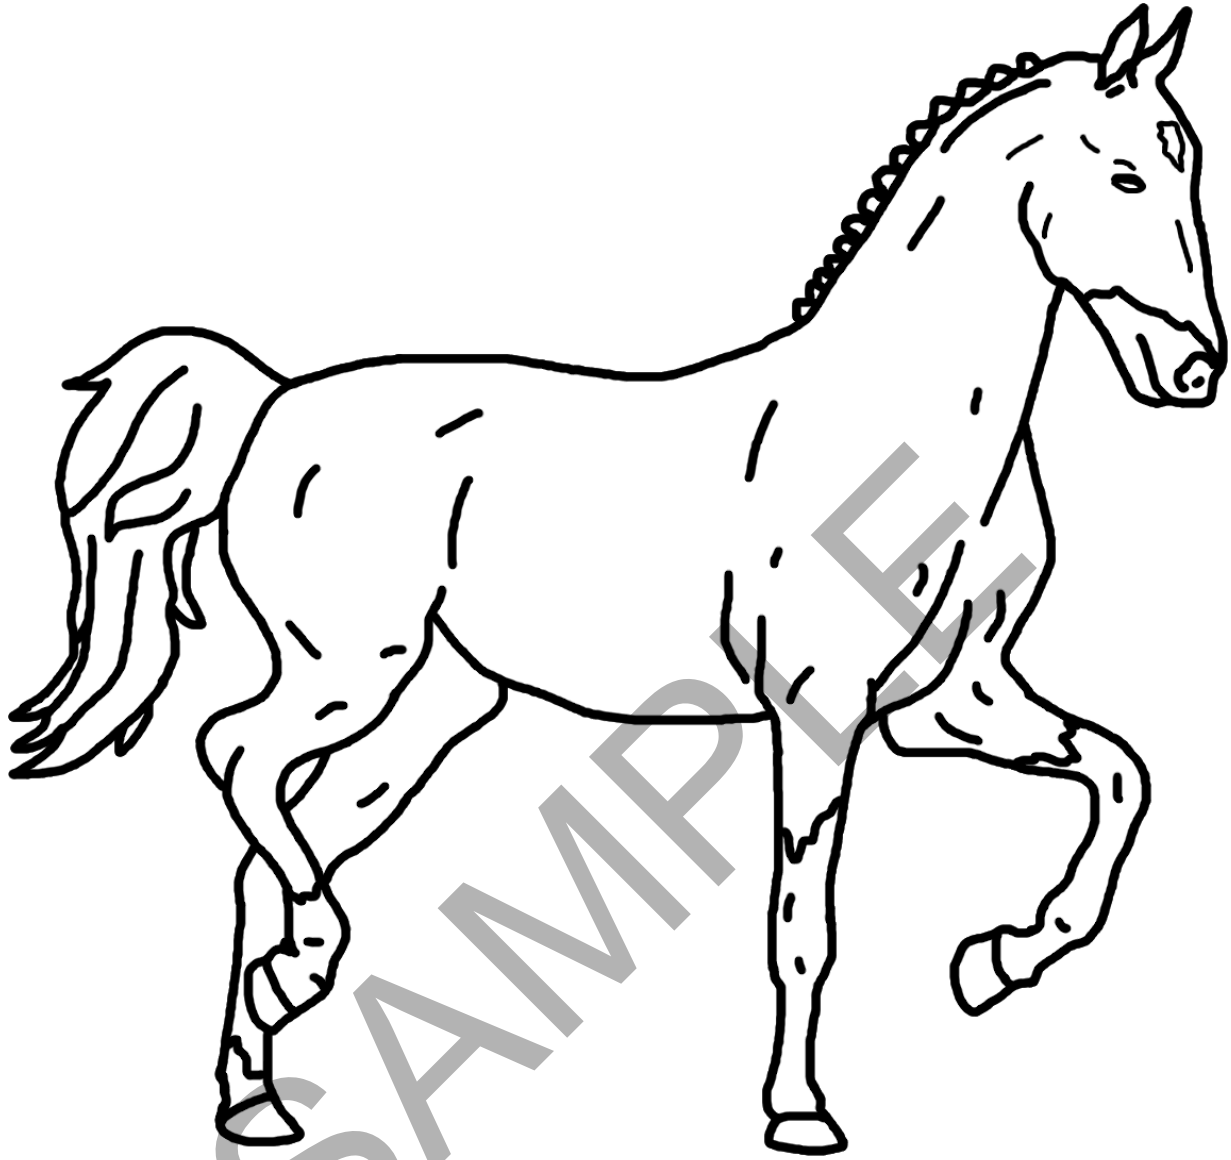

The Arabian horse
breed comes from

Arabia and is known for its speed

and stamina.

The Thoroughbred
comes from England
and is known for
racing and jumping.

The Hackney, first
bred in England, is known for its
high-stepped trot.

The Icelandic horse
has a running walk
called tölt.