

Many French
Nativities are made
out of clay.
In addition to Biblical figures . . .

the scenes could include French
villagers.

French Christmas
trees used to be decorated with apples.

Advent calendars

are popular, and

firemen and postmen

sell them door

to door.