

Marie Maynard-Daly, 1921–2003

Maynard-Daly was the first African American woman
to earn a Ph.D.
in chemistry.

Joseph R. McCarthy, 1908-1957

McCarthy was a U.S.
Senator who made
charges that Communists had infiltrated . . . .

the U.S. government,
although he was
not able to give sufficient proof.

Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, 1886-1969

Mies van der Rohe
was a famous
architect whose
work influenced
many others.