

Spelling & Vocabulary

Journey Through Asia

Unit Study Connecting Geography, History,
Science, and Faith

Bonnie Rose Hudson

Lesson One: China
Shanghai and Zhejiang

Try adding these words to your spelling list for this week. For vocabulary practice, write a definition for each word. You can look up the word and put the definition in your own words, or you can use the definition in the glossary. If the word is a place name, instead of a definition, write something special about the place. If you'd like to use the cards, you can write the definition on the back of each one.

govern: _____

Hangzhou: _____

Ningbo: _____

Shanghai: _____

Yangtze River: _____

Zhejiang: _____

Lesson One: China
Shanghai and Zhejiang

Lesson Two: China
Fujian

Try adding these words to your spelling list for this week. For vocabulary practice, write a definition for each word. You can look up the word and put the definition in your own words, or you can use the definition in the glossary. If the word is a place name, instead of a definition, write something special about the place. If you'd like to use the cards, you can write the definition on the back of each one.

declined: _____

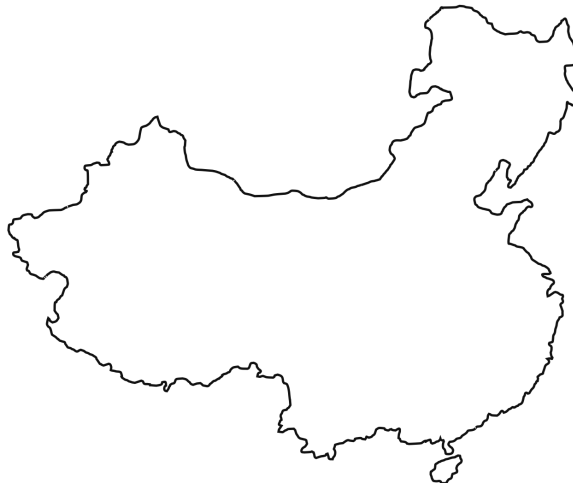

Fujian: _____

Fuzhou: _____

mainland: _____

revival: _____

unique: _____

Lesson Two: China
Fujian

declined

Fujian

Fuzhou

mainland

revival

unique

Lesson Three:
Taiwan

Try adding these words to your spelling list for this week. For vocabulary practice, write a definition for each word. You can look up the word and put the definition in your own words, or you can use the definition in the glossary. If the word is a place name, instead of a definition, write something special about the place. If you'd like to use the cards, you can write the definition on the back of each one.

ancestry: _____

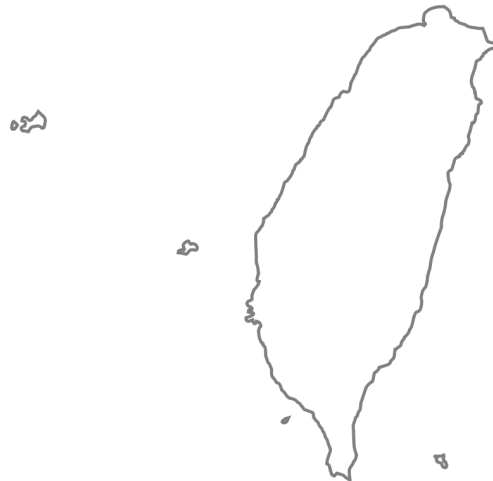

established: _____

Formosa: _____

historians: _____

strait: _____

threaten: _____

Lesson Three:
Taiwan

ancestry

established

Formosa

historians

strait

threaten

