

African penguins

have a circle of skin

around each eye that does not have any feathers. They . . .

like to eat squid,
anchovies, and
types of shrimp.

Invisible rails are large birds that live
on an island in Indonesia. They live in dense swamps
near forests.

Lord Howe woodhens
live on Lord Howe Island near Australia.
They mate for life
so they are often
found in pairs.