

God Creates Adam

On the sixth day of Creation, God created man. He placed him in the Garden of Eden with only one command to obey—he must not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

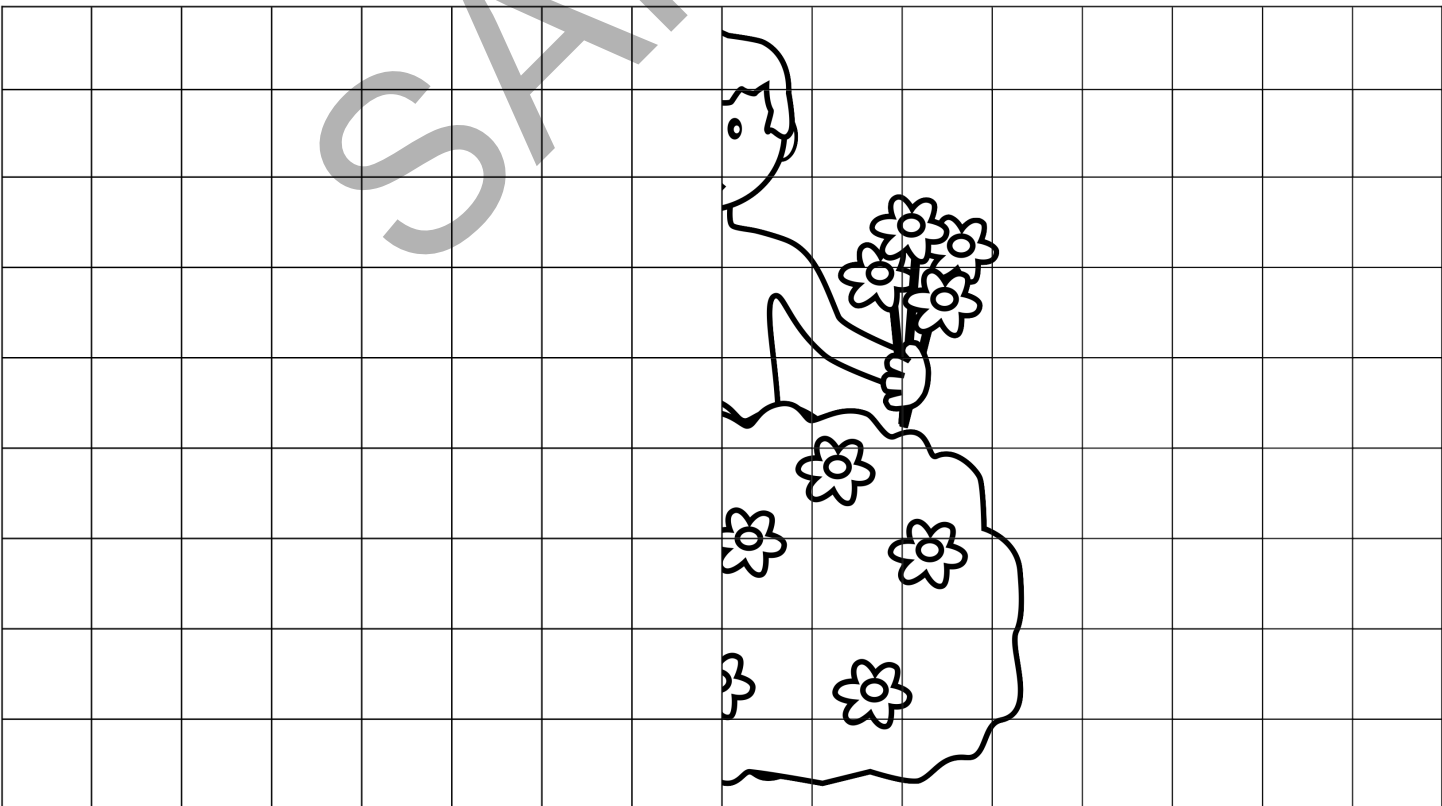

Then the Lord God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature. And the Lord God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed. And out of the ground the Lord God made to spring up every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, "You may surely eat of every tree of the garden, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die." Then the Lord God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him." Genesis 2:7-9, 15-18

- Decide if you want to draw the right half of the picture or the left half of the picture and draw it in one of the first two grids. You can draw both if you'd like. Don't worry if you can't draw every detail. Just do your best and draw as much of the picture as you can.
- Now, using a blank grid from the back of the book, try drawing the whole picture.
