

December 23, or “Little Christmas
Eve,” is a great time to make
gingerbread houses
and trim the tree.

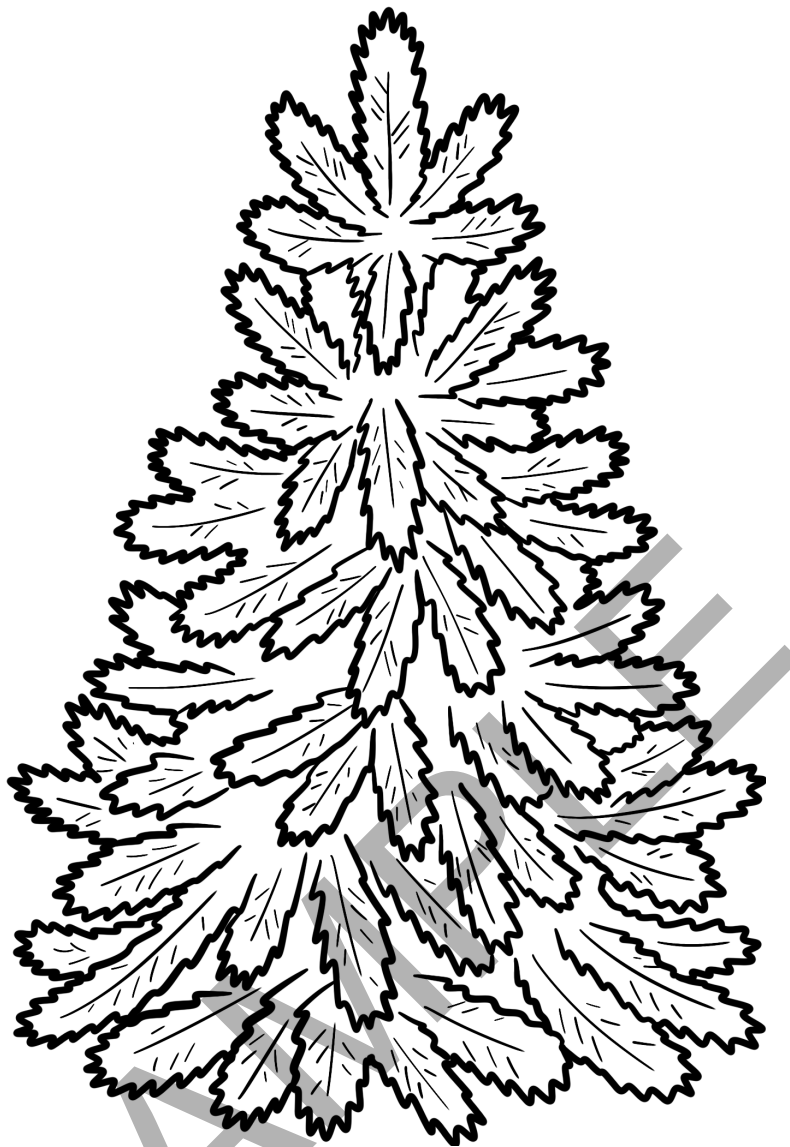

Some people use
white lights, tinsel or
garland, ornaments,
and tiny Norwegian
flags.

Another popular
kind of decoration

are julekurver, heart-
shaped paper
baskets.

Norway is famous
for a special Christmas tree it
sends to the United Kingdom every year.
